Weymouth.

86

April 30. 1862

Dear Mr Garrison,

I intended yesterday to have made a request to you, but in my hurry I forgot it. You know Monsieur de Tonqueville of Paris a very old friend of our family & the A. S. Cause. I think you have

have some correspondence with him. He is at any rate a most ardent admirer of yours. Just as I was leaving Paris, Madame Langel begged me to represent to you that nothing would give Mr De Tourguenieff
so much pleasure as to have a photograph of yourself, sent by yourself. His address is

97 Rue de Lille
Paris, I as he speaks & write English, or at least reads it perfectly, he would be greatly
delighted by a letter.
Pray do not omit this as he has been one of the Shaws best friends & is alle, even now, when so many people
seem to see men
as trees a travel that to take the enlightened American plain point.

Please write & send the best photograph of a letter size that you have, by the very next boat. I am quite ashamed that I have omitted to make this request, &
now ask.

Believe me, very affectionately yrs
Anne Weston